Cook the couscous

- Boil the kettle. Grate carrot.
- In a medium saucepan, heat the butter with a drizzle of olive oil over medium-high heat. Cook carrot, stirring, until softened, 2-3 minutes.
- Add couscous, the boiling water (% cup for 2 people / 1½ cups for 4 people) and vegetable stock powder. Stir to combine, cover with a lid and remove
- Leave for 5 minutes. Fluff up with a fork. Cover to keep warm.

Cook the salmon & make the salad

- Pat salmon dry with paper towel. In a medium bowl, combine ras el hanout, the salt and a drizzle of olive oil. Add salmon, gently turning to coat.
- Return frying pan to medium-high heat with a drizzle of olive oil. When oil is hot, cook salmon, skin-side down first, until just cooked through, 2-4 minutes each side (depending on thickness). In the last minute, add the honey, gently turning salmon to coat. Transfer to a plate to rest.
- While the salmon is cooking, combine tomato, mixed salad leaves and a drizzle of olive oil and the white wine vinegar in a second medium bowl. Season to taste.

Custom Recipe: If you've doubled your salmon, cook salmon in batches for the best results. Return all cooked salmon to pan before adding the honey.

Make the garlic yoghurt

- Meanwhile, roughly chop tomato.
- Finely chop garlic.
- In a large frying pan, heat a drizzle of olive oil and garlic over medium-high heat. Cook until fragrant, 1 minute. Transfer to a small heatproof bowl.
- Add Greek-style yoghurt to garlic oil mixture, stirring to combine. Season to taste, then set aside.

Serve up

- Divide carrot couscous and salad between plates. Top with Moroccan honey-glazed salmon.
- Serve with a dollop of garlic yoghurt. Enjoy!
