1

Make the carrot couscous

- Grate carrot.
- Finely chop garlic.
- Roughly chop tomato.
- In a medium saucepan, melt half the butter with a drizzle of olive oil over medium-high heat. Cook carrot, stirring, until softened, 2-3 minutes.
- Add garlic and cook, stirring, until fragrant, 1 minute. Add the water and vegetable stock powder. Bring to the boil.
- Add couscous, stir to combine, then cover with a lid and remove from the heat. Set aside until water has absorbed, 5 minutes. Fluff up with a fork.

3

Finish the couscous

- In a large bowl, combine carrot couscous, tomato, rocket leaves and a drizzle of white wine vinegar. Season to taste.

TIP: Finish the couscous in the saucepan to save on washing up!

Top Steak Tips!

1. Use paper towel to pat steak dry before seasoning.
2. Check if steak is done by pressing on it gently with tongs - rare steak is soft, medium is springy and well-done is firm.
3. For ultimate tenderness, let steak rest on a plate for 5 minutes before slicing.

2

Cook the beef

- See Top Steak Tips (below) for extra info! Meanwhile, place beef rump between two sheets of baking paper. Pound beef with a meat mallet or rolling pin until slightly flattened. Season beef with salt and pepper.
- In a large frying pan, heat a drizzle of olive oil over high heat. When oil is hot, cook beef, turning, for 3-6 minutes (depending on thickness), or until cooked to your liking.
- In the last minute of cook time, reduce heat to medium, add dukkah and remaining butter and turn to coat, 1-2 minutes. Transfer to a plate to rest.

TIP: Pounding the beef ensures that it's extra tender once cooked.

Custom Recipe: If you've doubled your beef rump, cook as above, in batches.

4

Serve up

- Slice dukkah steak.
- Divide rocket and tomato couscous salad and beef between plates.
- Spoon remaining dukkah from pan over steak. Top with Greek-style yoghurt to serve. Enjoy!
